THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Gracious God, you have taught us that without love our speech is but noise and our power is as nothing: Let your infinite love fill all creation, to bless and reconcile the universe to you, as we pray: You are our hope, O God; our praise shall be always of you.

Holy One, you have called your Church in the power of the Spirit and filled us with your divine love: Grant us your gifts of patience, kindness and humility, that rejoicing in the truth, we may bear all things, believe all things, hope all things endure all things, for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ. You are our hope, O God;

our praise shall be always of you.

Almighty One, in all times and places you have called your prophets in the power of the Spirit and put your words into their mouths: Let your prophetic word direct the leaders of the nations, to pluck up and pull down all instruments of violence and oppression, to destroy and to overthrow all injustice, to build and to plant your reconciling peace.

You are our hope, O God;

our praise shall be always of you.

Reconciling One, let your power go forth into all the earth with such grace and strength that your Holy Spirit may heal the sick, support the widowed, welcome the stranger, and comfort all who suffer. You are our hope, O God;

our praise shall be always of you.

Compassionate One, you have fulfilled the scripture in our hearing and called us to be a community of love: Let our kindness reach out beyond our boundaries to embrace the entire world which you bless through Christ's Spirit of compassion. You are our hope, O God;

our praise shall be always of you.

In you, O God, have we taken refuge, incline your ear to us and save us. We pray especially for____. You are our strong rock; you have sustained us from our birth. Hear our grateful hearts as we pray for thanksgiving, especially for____.

We commend to you those who have died, that they will see you face to face and will know you fully, even as they have been fully known.

You are our hope, O God;

our praise shall be always of you.

Gracious and Everliving God, let your people abide in faith, hope and love, that we may share Christ's victory over the prejudiced and sectarian passions which divide the world, and be so filled with the abundance of your infinite love, that the scripture may be fulfilled in us, and all people be united in the power of your loving Spirit, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
