

Upcoming Events:

Shared Lunch: There will be a shared lunch after the 10:30am service next Sunday.

Proclamation 2016: This will be held from May 4th - May 13th. The entire Bible will be read over this period. Please contact Andrew Gunter by email, acgunter@rogers.com if you are interested in doing Bible readings.

Easter Memorial: If you would like your loved one included in the Easter memorial list, please use the memorial envelopes on the blue shelf in the Narthex. Clearly print the needed information on the enclosed forms. These must be submitted no later than Sunday, March 20th. Donations to the Building Fund or Syrian Refugee Project would be much appreciated.

Don't forget Colin! — Prayer is requested for Colin Ranson and his family this week and beyond. They flew to Houston, Texas Friday, Feb. 26, with pre-op tests beginning Monday, February 29. Colin's laser brain surgery was scheduled for Friday, March 4 and they hope to be home March 15. The Rev. Paul and Kim ask for prayers for Colin (and his family), his medical team, and for safe travels. The people of this diocese have invested so much in this sweet little boy. Please follow up with fervent prayer.

Proclamation 2016: St Margaret's has been given the day and time slot to read sections of the Bible. It will be Thursday, May 5 from noon until 5:00pm. This will be at Christ Church Parish Church. If you are available to help read, please let Andy Gunter know.

“For the comfort of all attending services, please observe our scent – free policy.”

Sermon

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
(8:30 SERVICE)

A child is a precious gift, given into the hands of birth parents, adopted parents, caregivers, relatives, and a church community. Together we undertake the raising of children and together we ask for help, Lord!

Give us endurance as we care for babies, putting their needs ahead of our own, caring through the bone-weariness of sleepless nights.

Give us patience as we care for toddlers, guiding and correcting with warm voices and tender hearts. As our young ones learn languages, help us to delight in the joy of discovery, seeing the world through their own eyes; help us to become like children.

As our children grow and mature, give us wisdom to know when to hold on, and when to let go, when to discipline, and when to comfort.

In caring for our children, we admit that we have made mistakes, we have put our own needs ahead of theirs, we have not always been kind, we have not always been the kind of parent we would like to be, that you have called us to be,

Forgive us, and help us to be people who apologize, modelling repentance for our children.

Today we also pray for parents, children and members of our parish who are sick, remembering especially___.

We pray for those who are grieving because they have lost each other, whether through death or estrangement, especially___.

Thank you God that you are our great Caregiver, loving us with a love deeper and stronger than any we have ever known. Amen

Camp Medley

Leader – in – Training

Maren McLean Persaud knows that leadership training for teenagers works. She points to herself as the proof.

“I didn’t enjoy camp much. I was a quiet kid,” she said.

But years later, when she was 16, she was invited to a Leader-in-Training camp program which had a great impact on her.

“It’s the reason I’m still involved in camp. It set me off on a good foot,” said the director of Camp Medley.

This summer, Camp Medley is expanding its Leader-in-Training (LIT), with space for up to 24 young people.

“It was two weeks, now it’s three,” said Maren. “Anyone 16 or older who is interested in serving others and exploring their faith in a leadership setting should apply.”
