THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

With your power and grace, O God, you have liberated your children from oppression and set us free to love and serve you on behalf of all your creation: Receive our prayers as we cry out to you in faith, saying: Be not far away, O God, for you are our strength;

hasten to help us.

Yours is the royal power, O God, you rule over the nations: Hide not your face from the poor and come to all who are troubled, homeless or afraid, that the leaders of our nations and all in authority may remember and turn to you, serving the needs of the vulnerable and weak.

Be not far away, O God, for you are our strength;
hasten to help us.

When the people cry out to you, you hear them, O Compassionate One: Look upon all who live with poverty, fear, oppression or violence, and rescue them with the power of your Spirit.

Be not far away, O God, for you are our strength;
hasten to help us.

In the midst of the congregation we praise you and give glory to Christ who makes us one: Let all barriers among us be transcended in Christ, all fears cast out, and all oppressions overcome.

Be not far away, O God, for you are our strength;
hasten to help us.

Deliver those who are in beds of sickness, O God we pray especially for____.
 For your servants' sake, do not destroy anything that you have made, but take into your steadfast love those who have died, especially____.

Be not far away, O God, for you are our strength;
hasten to help us.

In our baptism we have been clothed with Christ and made one in Christ Jesus, that we may share in his liberating and healing work on behalf of the whole world: Grant us your courage, O God, to confront the darkness and brokenness which infect the world, that we may bring the power of your freeing love to all creation, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory is due, now and forever. Amen
