THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

From around the world we hear many children crying. O God;
Crying for food and drink and someone to enfold them in loving arms.
We remember the children of war torn Syria,
Hear their prayers, dear Lord,
and make us instruments of your peace.

We see the desolate eyes of refugees, O God;
plodding along war devastated roads,
or looking from transit camps, and from behind barbed wire,
for glimmers of hope.
Hear their prayers, dear Lord,
and make us instruments of your peace.

We read about your church, O God;
in some places overcrowding its buildings,
in others battling to maintain services,
or in some countries meeting secretly behind locked doors.
Hear their prayers, dear Lord,
and make us instruments of your peace.

We remember the sick and infirm, those in nursing homes, hospitals and shut-ins, remembering____.
We pray for those who now rest in your eternal embrace.

Holy God, while we have been praying,
you have been busy answering our petitions
with an ineffable wisdom. In humble dependence upon your enabling grace we raise our voices to say, Thank You.
Through Christ Jesus our Saviour.
Amen
