THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Gracious Father, we thank you for having heard us and for sending Jesus, the resurrection and the life, to be among us to raise us from death into new life:

Let the breath of your Spirit come from the four winds to breathe upon us as we pray: Our souls wait for you, O God; in your word is our hope.

Set the mind of the Church on your Spirit which is life and peace, O Holy One, that we may walk in your light and not stumble, living in trust that brings eternal life.

Our souls wait for you, O God;

in your word is our hope.

Prophesy to the breath, Almighty One, and let the power of your living spirit enter into the dry bones of all who suffer from oppression and threat, that those who lead and who hold authority in the world may be instruments of life and healing, banishing violence and justice from the face of the earth.

Our souls wait for you, O God;

in your word is our hope.

Look upon all who live in darkness or the shadow of death, and by the power of your spirit take away the stones that entomb and the bondage that inhibits: Unbind them, and let them go!

Our souls wait for you, O God;

in your word is our hope.

Let all who live in this community call to you from our depths and wait upon your plenteous redemption, that we may walk in your light and know your resurrection power.

Our souls wait for you, O God;

in your word is our hope.

Let your spirit be disturbed and deeply moved by the suffering of your people, especially__.

We thank you for the gift of life and for all other benefits of your mercy, especially__.

Open our graves and raise us up, especially those who have died whom we remember today, __.

May the one who raised Christ from the dead give life to our mortal bodies also through his spirit that dwells in us.

Our souls wait for you, O God;

in your word is our hope.

From the depths have we called to you; O God, hear our voice. We thank you for the gift of resurrection through your Son Jesus and for the breath of the Spirit that brings life into our bones: Lead us into the way of Jesus, that we may share in his life-giving work to bring healing, hope and reconciliation to all the earth, through him in whom we live and move and have our being, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen
