THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Gracious God, you manifest your power primarily in showing compassion and love for all humanity: Listen to us as we call upon you in prayer, saying: O God, how manifold are your works; in wisdom you have made them all.

You have called your Church to become a community of humble servants, having been baptized with the baptism of Jesus: Guide your people into such faithfulness, that we may serve the world in your name.

O God, how manifold are your works;
in wisdom you have made them all.

You have become for our leaders an example of service through sacrifice: Give the rulers of this world a heart for justice and peace and teach them that those who wish to be first must become slave of all.

O God, how manifold are your works;
in wisdom you have made them all.

You have clothed your creation with majesty and splendor: Open our eyes to see the beauty all around us and give us a reverence for the natural resources at our disposal.

O God, how manifold are your works;
in wisdom you have made them all.

You have promised to hear our prayers and supplications through Jesus, our great high priest: Receive the prayers we lift to you as we intercede for all who suffer throughout the world, especially those who face tyranny, violence, oppression, or poverty.

O God, how manifold are your works;
in wisdom you have made them all.

We offer our prayers for those for whom we are called to pray, especially ____.
We offer our grateful thanks for your presence and deliverance, especially for ____.

Let those who have died sit with the triumphant Christ in glory, as we remember ____.

O God, how manifold are your works;
in wisdom you have made them all.

Almighty God, through your servant Jesus Christ, you have made many righteous, raising him from suffering into glory: Let your resurrection power be present to all in need as you strengthen us for service in your name; through the same Jesus Christ, our saviour, who with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns in unity and love, forever and ever. Amen.
