THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Merciful God, you are kind to the ungrateful and the wicked: Expand our compassion that we may not only do to others as we would have them do to us, but also may learn to love our enemies and to bless those who may curse us, as we pray: Commit your way to God. Be still and wait patiently.

You shower blessings upon your Church, O Gracious One, and you call us to share in your generous work of reconciliation: Help us give generously and forgive willingly as instruments of your abundant love for all people.

Commit your way to God.

Be still and wait patiently.

Holy One, teach the leaders of our land and all in authority to follow your path of nonviolence and to resist evildoers with mercy, that all nations may refrain from anger, leave rage alone, and delight in the abundance of peace.

Commit your way to God.

Be still and wait patiently.

Compassionate One, help those who live with violence, oppression, threat, and disease, that what is sown in weakness may be raised in power, so that the lowly may possess the land and be given your heart’s desire.

Commit your way to God.

Be still and wait patiently.

Gracious One, inspire generosity in this community that we may give and lend without expectation, that all may enjoy your divine abundance: a good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over.

Commit your way to God.

Be still and wait patiently.

Merciful God, hear our prayers for your children in need and bring your comfort to all for whom we intercede, especially ____.

We thank you for your abundant mercy and generosity, offering you our gratitude especially for ____.

What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable: Bring the dead into your eternal living heart, especially ____.

Commit your way to God.

Be still and wait patiently.

Holy God, pour into our hearts your greatest gift, which is love, the true bond of peace and of all virtue, that we may become merciful even as you are merciful and be children of the Most High, for you live and love us into being through your Son Jesus Christ, in the power of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

We welcome members of 1st St. Margaret’s Scouts who are holding their annual Church Parade today in celebration of Scout-Guide Week, held every February around the shared birthday of Lord Robert Baden-Powell (B-P) and his wife and collaborator, Lady Olave Baden-Powell (February 22).

Scouting began in 1907 when Lt.-Gen. Robert Baden-Powell took a group of youth to a camp on Brownsea Island. There is evidence that a few Scouting groups started up in Canada in 1907. The Canadian General Council of the Boy Scout Association was incorporated by an act of the Canadian Parliament on June 12, 1914. In 2007, our name was officially changed to Scouts Canada.

Today, Scouts Canada is a diverse organization with over 100,000 members representing every faith and culture. Scouts Canada offers programming in more than 19 languages reflecting Canada’s multicultural landscape and communities.

St. Margaret’s relationship with Scouting goes back at least to the 1920s.
