THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Heavenly Father, As we make our journey through the season of Lent: Walk with us, Sustain us and Nurture us.
Help us to withstand the temptations that come our way this week and the weeks to follow.

May your grace be sufficient for our need.

Gracious God, As we go through the wilderness of Lent and of our lives, send your manna to us, give us courage to face obstacles and uncertainties that confuse and stifle your spirit.

May your grace be sufficient for our need.

Heavenly Father, we pray for all Clergy, Bishops and their families. Protect them from discouragement and the trickery and wiles of the evil one. Help them to face uncertainty with dependency upon your enabling grace.

We remember David, our Bishop, Claude, William, and George, retired Bishops, and their families.

May your grace be sufficient for our need.

Gracious God, We pray for the troubled areas of our world, Christians who experience persecution. Lord, instil a desire for peace in the minds of world leaders.

May your grace be sufficient for our need.

Heavenly Father, we pray for the sick and shut-in’s as we remember:___

May your grace be sufficient for our need.

Gracious God, You give us a vision of an eternal future where there will be no more tears, struggle or pain.
We bless Your Holy name that even now those who have left this earthly realm abide with you for ever more.

We remember and give thanks for:___

May your grace be sufficient for our need.

Heavenly Father, even in the midst of our Lenten journey, we reflect on our poverty of spirit. Yet we are a hopeful people, a people of faith and trust in your splendour and power over sin, sickness and even death. Thank you for your grace in our time of need. Amen
