THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

O mysterious God of Moses, God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we stand on this holy ground as witnesses of your burning presence among us:

Receive our prayers and intercessions as we bring the concerns of the world to you, saying:

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;

our lips shall give you praise.

Like a patient gardener you nurture and feed your Church, urging us to grow and flourish that we may bring forth fruit without delay: Bless your people, that all may seek you eagerly and share in your work of reconciliation.

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;

our lips shall give you praise.

You see the misery of those who cry on account of their taskmasters, and you deliver your children from bondage and oppression: Bless our leaders and those in authority throughout the world, that they may rescue all who suffer from violence, terror and injustice and lead them to a land flowing with milk and honey.

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;

our lips shall give you praise.

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;

our lips shall give you praise.

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;

our lips shall give you praise.

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;
our lips shall give you praise.

You hear the call of all who live with misery, illness, poverty or threat: Raise up champions of virtue, healing, and justice to bring the power of your gracious compassion and liberation to everyone in need.

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;
our lips shall give you praise.

You have brought us to a good and broad land and promised to be with us in the power of your holy Name: Grasp the attention of all your people, and, as you called Moses, call us to your mysterious presence that we may share in your work of freedom and justice.

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;
our lips shall give you praise.

You led your ancestors through the cloud and sea, and you fed them with spiritual food and drink in the wilderness: Let your hope and blessing be upon those for whom we pray in intercession, especially___.

Our souls are content and our mouths praise you with joy: Hear our gratitude as we offer you our thanks, especially for___.

You have redeemed the souls of your children and freed them unto eternal life: Take into the fire of your love those who have died, especially Jean Benner, Brenda Dunphy, ___.

Your loving kindness is better than life itself;
our lips shall give you praise.

Almighty God, you are mysterious, free and undefined: Let the power of your presence burn in our hearts and in our land, that your will may be done and your Name glorified forever, in the power of your Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
