THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Gracious God, your Son Jesus Christ took on our flesh, becoming poor for us that we might know the power of your presence, which brings resurrection and life for all humanity: Let new things spring forth, as we pray to you, saying: God has done great things for us, and we are glad indeed.

Because Christ Jesus has made the Church his own and gifted it with the righteousness from God based on faith, we want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection: Be with all our ministers and people, Gracious One, that we may press on toward the goal for the prize of your heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

God has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed.

Because you do new things, Almighty One, making a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, we turn to you in trust: Inspire our civic leaders and all in authority throughout the world, that they may share in your reconciling work of peace and be a blessing to the poor.

God has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed.

Because you love them, you are present to help all who suffer: Restore the fortunes of all who cry out in anguish from poverty, violence, illness, and oppression, that those who sow with tears may reap with songs of joy.

God has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed.

Because you raise the dead to new life, we live in hope for the renewal of our community and for the healing of the world: Let our mouths be filled with laughter and our tongues with shouts of joy.

God has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed.

Because you are infinite in love and mercy, hear our prayers for those for whom we intercede, especially ____.

Because you bless your children and give drink to your chosen people whom you formed for yourself, we bring you our prayers of gratitude and thanksgiving, especially for ____.

Because we press on to make your resurrection our own, we offer to your eternal life those who have died, especially ____.

The Lord has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed.

Anoint us with the generous Spirit of Christ’s death and resurrection, O Holy One, that we may joyfully proclaim the good news to all people and serve the poor and needy with Christ-like compassion, as we praise you, O Holy Trinity, One God, forever and ever. Amen.
